27 are in progress. The main reasons for the delay in completion are difficulty in establishing the correct sources of water oving to difficult geological factors like brackishness etc. and also due to non-availability of pipes, handpumps and cement all over the country.

(c) Every effort is being made to procure material required to complete the incomplete works; so that water is made available on priority basis.

Formation of Horticultural Gardens and Nursaries at Irrigation Projects, Gulbarga District

266. SRI ANNARAO PATIL (Aland)—Will the Minister of State for Horticulture and Prisons be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government has prepared any plan and estimates for formation of Horticulture Gardens and creation of nursaries simultaneously in the following irrigation projects of Gulbarga District.

(1) Amarja Project

(2) Bennethora Project

(3) Mullamari Project

(4) Chandrampalli Project

(5) Saudagar Tank Project ;

(b) if so, the location of each garden and the estimated amount of expenditure on each of these gardens?

SRI K. YENKATAPPA—(Minister of State for Horticulture and Prisons)

(a) Only one plan has been prepared in respect of the Chandrampalli project and a Horticulture Farm to an extent of 114 acres, has also been established, in Chandrampalli below the dam site.

(b) A Horticulture Farm in Chandrampalli in Chincholi taluk ash been established during the year 1971-72 just below the dam site. The proposed expenditure on the farm for the year 1979-80 is about Rs. 80.000.

Fire accident at Yeddallagudda village in Gokak Taluk

378. SHRI L. S. NAIK (Gokak)—Will the Minister for Revenue and Agriculture be pleased to state:—

(a) whether it has come to the notice of the Government that fire accident had accured at Yeddallagudda Village in Gokak taluk on 24th February 1980;